“ We at Central Christian Church will miss our, “Snow Commander”, Jim Mummey, tremendously! We send our deepest heartfelt condolences to his beloved wife Alice and family. He was more than the guy who plows our snow, he was a trusted friend. His word was his Bond, his word was like Gold, pure. He leaves a legacy of, “When men were men”. A Gentleman, kind, trustworthy and true. Conscientious of doing not just a good job but a Great Job for his customers. He went out of his way to help us stay safe during winter storms. Thank You Jim! For being being more than the guy who cleans the snow, you became our friend. God’s Peace is now Truly upon You. May God’s Comforter, The Holy Spirit, Comfort the family’s hearts and soul knowing that the Lord whom Jim embraced here on earth is now embracing him in Heaven. Sincerely, Pastor Rafael Colón, and ALL the members of Central Christian Church. 🙏🌸
