

Jesse Ryan Stamper

November 16, 1975 - July 30, 2025

With deep sadness, we announce the passing of Jesse Ryan Stamper. He was preceded in death by his father, Harold Stamper. Jesse was the father of Abigail, Elijah, and Samuel Stamper; the cherished son of Marsha Stamper; and the loving brother of Melissa Stamper Frye and Josh Stamper, uncle to Isabella Frye, Liam Frye, Josie Frye and Christian Bormann; grandfather of Christian Stamper. He leaves behind family and friends who will remember his warmth, humor, and steadfast spirit.

Jesse was a proud member of Ironworkers Local No. 395 and a beloved presence on countless job sites, where he jokingly considered himself "the hand" and the "Top Gang Guru". Jesse brought dedication and a sense of camaraderie wherever he worked.

Beyond his profession, Jesse found joy in tending his garden, relaxing at the beach, and spending time on the golf course, a sport in which he excelled as a collegiate golfer. A lifelong Chicago Cubs fan and a passionate cat lover, especially of Hendrix, Jesse brought enthusiasm and laughter into every room he entered. He was a loyal friend who always knew how to lift spirits.

Jesse's faith was important to him; he was a strong believer in Jesus Christ. As those who knew him mourn his loss, they will fondly remember his catchphrase, "Hitem Straight" and the legacy of love and friendship he leaves behind. He will be deeply missed by all whose lives he touched.
