“ JoAnn was a friend I met through the Merrville Chamber. We spent many Thursday evenings together being the last ones to leave what ever open house. I am so sorry to have lost this friend. She was always doing something nice for someone or sharing what ever prize she had won. It was eally terrific the way she volunterred to help in so many ways. She will be sorely missed. i am sorry for her family because she loved them dearly, and I know they will miss her so much.

“ JoAnn loved life and had such interesting stories about the people she cared for in her various jobs over the years. There was the woman who was running a business doing fortune telling in the assisted living facility, the guy who grabbed the electric fence at a horse stable then grabbed her arm to give her the shock too. There was the time we were hiking in the Grand Canyon and she was begging the burro trail riders to give her a lift. JoAnn cared about everyone, survived many personal hardships and yet had perspective to laugh at life’s twists and turns. JoAnn is a good example of “It’s not what happens to you, but how you react to it that matters.” — Epictetus
