“ "Johnny" lived down the "alley" from my family on the South Side of Milwaukee. He was always one of the kindest and nicest people I have ever known. And he had always had that beautiful smile lighting up his face. My sincere condolences to the entire Adamczewski family.

John was one of the nicest men, I ever met. He had a great sense of humor, that kept you smiling. He made us look forward to coming to work, and was the best boss I ever had. I will never forget him.
