“ Janet, Lisa and Erica. We are all so sorry to have heard of John's passing. He was a great man and will be sorely missed. As I reflected on this news, I realized that I have known John for the past 17 years. He was a great friend to the masonry business. He was a pleasure to do business with and to compete against as well.

We will all miss him. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

“ I was a classmate of John's at Christ The King elementary school in Indianapolis. As I recall John's house was on the corner of 55th St and Rural-we often walked partway home together after school. I can't remember the occasion but I ran into John some twenty or thirty years ago and he told me about his business in Crown Point. John was a great guy and we had good times together as friends growing up. My condolences to his family.##imported-begin##David G. Hoffmann##imported-end##

“ It was always a joy to watch John with his grandchildren at Mass. The man that could rule a county political party would just melt when a little hand reached for and grabbed his hand. He just glowed with the joy of them.##imported-begin##Kitty Conley##imported-end##
