“ A "bon vivant" of sorts who took the road less traveled and kept in touch often and I was waiting for the call that never came 🙏 R.I.P. "John Boy"; you did it your way and our world is a better place because of you. Karen & Andrew 🎈😎💕💕

“ Condolences and sympathy to the family of John. I remember him being a kind, caring and gregarious person. There were always stories to tell, adventures to share and class reunions to attend when possible . As a member of the awesome Class of LW '64, John will be dearly missed by me. May he be remembered as a good person, loyal friend to many, and one of God's children. Rest in peace JKB

“ John was a good friend. Whenever he came to my house, he would play the organ. After our 50th class reunion, he would call out of the blue with interesting stories of his life. RIP, John.

I am very sorry to hear of John's passing, and I hope he is at peace now. He called me several times when he was in Ft. Wayne, and we had chats about Lew Wallace and what was happening in his life. Rest in Peace, John ...
