“ What a long life Mr. C has had. He certainly is a role model for those who seek the American Dream. My late husband, Ron Glenn, was a tall man with long torso, arms and legs so when we found the Cicco's, many years ago, they worked long hours in a corridor. What a blessing to have such a talented man make a suit that actually fit. Through the years there were many and Ron wore one to his final resting place with comments of friends "what a beautiful suit". May you all be comforted to know along with many he will be remembered for his talent, dedication and kindness.
