“ John was my best friend growing up. He never realized it, but hanging out with him and our cousin Joey helped me escape my reality. With them I was just one of the boys. Building ramps and jumping them with our bikes. Spending hours building our wrestling characters on our PS1. Actually wrestling in the living room and getting yelled at for being too rowdy. Making whirlpools for hours in our little blue blow up pool. Endless halloweens, Halloween and birthday parties. We grew apart as people do when they get older. We were talking about getting all of us cousins together to start cousin bbq Sundays. It breaks my heart that you won't be here with us. I'll miss you forever. 💔
