“ You and I spent a lot of time together since you came to Indiana. I met a lot of people thru you.. friends and family. I dont do that facebook stuff and had no idea you pasted. It felt like I just talked to you. My daughter is just turning 1 and would of loved for you to meet her. Hope your family is doing well here in Indiana and back in B More. You were a great friend and always had my back.. thank you for everything man. We both have had our shares of ups and downs. I appreciate everything from a place to sleep to a shoulder to cry on. Go Ravens Go Eagles. I miss you man!
