“ I am sorry I missed seeing the obituary and most of all for missing the funeral services. In the time I knew him, John was a man of great faith. He would faithfully be at the weekly Communion Service, and even when he was bed-ridden would be ready and even anxious to receive Eucharist, even just a tiny piece when he couldn't eat regular food. He hung in there for which I admired him. As long as they were at Brentwood, Mary was at his side. I believe both have earned their place in heaven. God bless all of their children for encouraging such good parents. Deacon Richard Huber
