“Mr. Unterfranz was a great teacher at Morton East. He made a point to connect with all us students. We shared our weekends with him every Monday in class because he shared his with us. Just simply sharing apart of his life and weekends wih us, really showed us that he cared for what and how our lives where beyond the classroom. This really connected with us beyond him as just a teacher at Morton East. He helped and mentored us into believing in ourselves because he believed in us when nobody else would. My prayers and blessings goes out to his family, friends and to all those that he touched. He made sure we understood the Morton East motto: "What I will, I can."

Rest in peace Mr. Unterfranz.

“ Mr. Unterfranz was a true role-model teacher. He met his students with positivism. He challenged them. He helped fellow teachers. He behaved with confidence and poise. I respected him greatly and I don't use these words lightly.

“ I have countless fun stories about John tolerating the Nelson’s for more than 40 years.

Most of them involve me as the Nelson.

From the block party on Francisco to the birthday party on Maple , to the carrot infested meatloaf in Milwaukee , to the pig roast fiascos on Forest Lane , and on and on ! John was a blast to be around.

He faced this terrible disease with dignity and grace and tolerated us all giving him directions on what was best for him.

He was a wonderful husband to my sister and they raised an amazing, beautiful family. I will miss him tremendously!

“ I will always be grateful that John didn't ban me from his kitchen after I shoved 2lbs of carrot peelings down the garage disposal. Of course the party was long over and I was on my way home before the damage was discovered. John spent the next three hours unclogging the drain. Thanks, John, for trusting me to use the kitchen sink. 🥕🥕
