

John M. Zambory

January 12, 1964 - May 31, 2024

John M. Zambory of Tampa, Florida, passed away very unexpectedly on May 31, 2024, at the age of 60. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, John & Jane Zambory, and his sister, Arlene Kolakovich. John is survived by his two daughters, Alexa Zambory of Indianapolis, Indiana and Madisyn Zambory of Tampa, Florida; and his sister, Mary Gutmann of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

John graduated from Andean High School in 1982. He continued his education at Purdue University. John was a devoted Boilermaker. He received a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering and a master's degree in industrial engineering. John's illustrious career began with Whirlpool and took him and his family on many "adventures". He and his family settled in Colleyville, Texas and this is where they raised their girls. John loved the career he created, concentrating in Procurement and Sales and he proudly continued with this career until the end. John was an avid sports fan, wine connoisseur, and had a true appreciation for being a father to his two girls. He leaves this world with the love and respect of his family, friends, and colleagues. “ I was shocked and saddened to hear about John. We were good friends in high school and I have very good memories of those days, which included many laughs and being in a couple of high school plays together (he was Sky Masterson in Guys & Dolls!). I was hoping to reconnect with John. My prayers are with him and his family. Thank you, John, for being my friend and the good high school memories. I will never forget them or you. Continue to take care of your loved ones from high above. Tom Onda
