“ Mom and Uncle Joe were always remarkably close and consequently he was always there to help her. When Mom was in the Village, he would come by once a week, carrying a box of donuts from somewhere for the two of them. He was always very special to me too, and I will miss him a great deal. He was always a great guy to Pat and Ted, welcomed them both into the extended family. Rest in peace Uncle Joe. Love Deborah.

“ What can I say about Uncle Joe? He was a loving and kind Uncle and at the same time a jokester. He always reminded me that I am the "oldest" niece and always knew my age. Uncle Joe was there for my Dad when he was ill. I have the fondest memories of Uncle Joe and will always keep him in my heart. Linda
