Joseph “Eddie” Davis, of Lakes of the Four Seasons, passed away suddenly at his home on Wednesday, April 6, 2011. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph A. and Daphne (nee LaGacy) Davis, sister, Marjorie Goodrich and son-in-law, Thomas McMullen. He is survived by his devoted and caring wife of 53 years, Almeda Davis; two sons, Joseph E. “Chip” Davis of Houston, TX and Michael E. (Liz) Davis; two daughters, Sharon (John) Dull and Sandra McMullen; four grandchildren, Ashley Davis, Christie (Brian) Mellis, Michael E. Davis, and Stephanie (Jeff) Owen all of Crown Point, IN; three great-grandchildren, Liam Owen, Abigail Mellis and Grace Mellis; numerous other relatives and close friends. Born and raised in Gary, Eddie was a graduate of Lew Wallace High School. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force, WW II, and was a fighter pilot rising to the rank of Lieutenant. Eddie and Almeda were married on March 2, 1958 and lived in Aetna, Miller, and then moved to LOFS in 1973. After the war, he began a career in the sheet metal business which led to the founding of Davis Heating and Air Conditioning Company in 1959. Eddie started working for the Lake County Health Department in 1980 and worked there until his retirement in 2002. Eddie was an avid sportsman in his day. He loved skiing, fishing, hunting, and golf and was a huge fan of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Bears.
