“ Joe has one of the sweetest souls I've ever been blessed to be with. While it is a shock to feel that he is gone from us I am grateful that he is Home. No doubt about this for anyone who knows Joe. All the troubles of this life are over. All the blessings for a good and faithful soul are now his.

We grieve for ourselves, as we should in our losing him. While we are glad for him.

Have a good time Joe, and give us a nod now and then till we see thee again.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Joe. I knew him from the neighborhood in Chicago known as 'The Villa.' My brother, Jim San Hamel, kept in touch with Joe all of these years. Jim and Joe were quite the pair. There were so many laughs! Joe was so sweet to all of us. He was so patient; no matter what my brother would come up with, Joe would just smile and say, "Sure, Jim." Their interactions were quite endearing. Joe would do anything for anyone, and he just had a heart of gold. All of you have been privileged, in my opinion, to have had many good years with him. He was a light, and he will be sorely missed. Please know that I will hold all of you in my heart and prayers. Eternal rest grant upon Joe, O Lord, and may the perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen. May God bless and keep you all.
