Anyone who knew Josephine was immediately amused by her quick wit followed by laughter. She gave truth to the adage you are never too old. In her later years she became a avid crossword puzzle player and Kings Corner Card shark. She was known as Josephine, Jo and JoJo to her friends and caregivers. When you tried to pull her leg, Josephine would bark "Get out of here!" it was always a good feeling hearing her laugh.

A special note of thanks to all the nurses and caregivers of St Anthony's Nursing who provided to Josephine the care, kindness and love to her life in her final years.

She will be remembered for her spirit, warmth and the kindness she displayed to her friends, loved ones and acquaintances. Arrangements entrusted to
