“ I Thank God for the wonderful Mami he gave me. She was always so loving and caring. She always had a smile on her face and her eyes were always filled with so much joy and love. She taught me to be strong and to be caring and appreciative to others. She taught me and guided me with good values and principles and to always respect everyone. She taught me to have faith and Thank God for everything. I have so many precious and memorable memories that will always be in my heart. I know now she is with Papi and I Thank God for the wonderful Mami and Papi that he gave me all four of us were always together no matter what. I love them very much.
