“ Julie and I became next door neighbors when our family moved to Miller in 1952. That was the beginning of a lifelong friendship. We were in the same class at Wirt School, and have kept in touch throughout the years. We had the chance to visit at our last reunion in 2022 and also met at the Blue Chip Casino the next day. We shared some mutual friends from school and always enjoyed our visits. I struggle with the idea that I won't see her again. I offer my sympathy and condolence to Julies family. She was a good and decent person and will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Tim, the passing of your mom saddens me greatly! She treated Bill & I as her own kids! We always knew we were welcome at the Tracy household! Now, she wasn't afraid to keep us in line either! She gave so much love and joy to us. I hope your find peace in the happy memories during this difficult time!
