“Cis and I became best friends the summer of 1955 when my family moved to Wells Street in Miller and has remained my dearest friend for almost 65 years. I continue to feel her presence and know that she is now on the other side in comfort and bliss. All the same, I miss her very much.

Our families go way back. My dad and her dad grew up on the same street in Gary (Van Buren). Her aunt 'JJ' lived on Van Buren until her death as did my grandma Johnson. As children Cis and I would have our 'second breakfasts' at each other's mothers' kitchens and I relished her mom's hot dogs with butter for lunch/snacks. My sister Beverly bonded with Cis's sibs, in particular Patty and Tuck, and Cis continued to rely on my mother for advice and guidance as a young woman and mother.

Playing in the sand dunes was our number one 'go-to' no matter what age. During rainy days in the summer we enjoyed Monopoly marathons on the screened in sleeping porch of her home. We shared our stories, dreams, laughs and boyfriends.

Adulthood took us our separate ways and we would still talk about our families, politics, heart breaks and achievements. Cis was brilliant! She had a brain like a trap and a ferocious humor that helped her burn her way through her ER nursing days and nights.

She remains a tremendously huge spirit in our lives and I pray that her family will be comforted by this knowing in their loss.

This makes me wonder how my grandma Ihnat lived as long as she did. I knew she buttered crackers, but buttered hotdogs?! Thank you for being such a great friend for such a good run.

“ Worked with Kathy in the ER at St. Mary's - Kathy, Kris, and I rocked the 3-11 shift. It never really seemed like work! I have such good memories of Kathy, she was like a big sister to me. Loved all the time we spent together, and so glad I got to see her a couple of years ago in Hobart.

Love and prayers to her family.
