“ Back in the 80's I was taking a trip to Wisconsin from Indiana. Uncle Kenneth and Aunt Juanita's house was about halfway. They allowed me to stop at their house overnight to take a break on the trip. I had my 3 little ones with me. They were so sweet to me. When I woke up, my baby Andy and their baby Tammy was laying in the middle of the living room floor on a mat sound asleep. It was so cute! I went in the kitchen and Juanita was fixing breakfast for us. After breakfast I went outside and Uncle Kenneth was out there checking the fluids in my car to make sure everything was OK before I took off. When I got ready to leave Uncle Kenneth got in his car and told me to follow him. He led me to the highway and showed me which way to go. He treated me like I was one of his own children. Thank you Uncle Kenneth and Aunt Juanita. I love you both so much.

“ Uncle Kenny. I last saw you 2 1/2 years ago at Tony's funeral. I'm so sorry that I didn't keep in touch more. You were such a sweet person and took me in as part of the family from the start. You were a gentle, soft spoken and kind man. I will never forget you. I love you. Rest in Paradise. Ps. Please give Tony a big hug from me. Prayers for Juanita, Ken, the girls and Richard. May you all find peace in your memories. Love you all

“ Thank you Unc for your love, beliefs and compassion. The values you taught us are treasured, which leaves us striving to do better, Thank you for taking in my Mother and help raising her with my Auntie. Not only have you been a great role model to your children, but you shared your wisdom with your nieces and nephews as well.. Im a proud nephew that is humbled, to be part of your life.

“ To My Sugar,

I can't fully express what you mean to me in words. I wish we could rewind the time and have many more memories. You will be missed so much. Thank you for loving your family with all of your heart and showing us what "true wealth" actually means. Life will be painful without you.

“ I remember as a kid going on trips together mom and dad uncle Kenneth and aunt Juanita to Kentucky. And loved going there house all the stories uncle would tell about when his brother and sisters growing up loved to here them. He loved family and loved people he is going to be missed he would call me on the phone and wish me a happy birthday and then sing the birthday song he did it to everyone one of us. I remember Sandy calling me and telling me you going to be home uncle Kenneth is calling to sing to you he loved God and his family he would tell me that Luther worked to much and that place was going to work him to death. R.I.P Luther and I love you so much.

“ You will be missed. I'll never forget all the Kentucky reunion road trips we all went on and the picnics at crown point fairgrounds. But mostly what a kind hearted person you were to your family, friends any anyone you talked to . You have a big heart and that will always be remembered in anyone that meet you. RIP love you 🥹
