“ In Every-way that mattered, we were sisters. My heart is very heavy that you had to go. I hold so many happy memories in my heart and will remember you always. I'm going to miss the celebration of our Birthdays that we shared every year. You were a wonderful person with a big heart and loved everyone! You helped everyone when ever possible no matter how sick you felt. You were there many times for our children. Thank you for the great memories you gave them.

Kim, your my sister and great friend. You will be truly missed & I love You Dearly!! I pray your pain is over and you can now rest with a Happy Heart.

God, Wrap Your Loving Arms Around Kim & Us All who mourn her.##imported-begin##Carolyn Neumeyer##imported-end##
