“ I am so grateful to have known a man like Kris Kingery. I am even more grateful that throughout our years, our paths continued to meet as we became family members. I was able to see a young man turn into a successful career man, a loving husband, and a Father whom led his boys with love and confidence. Allison, my deepest sympathy for you as you morn the loss of such a wonderful man, husband and Father. His love for you was known by us all, he adored you. To Kris, Kolton, and Kayden, the memory of your Father will never be gone, as he will now walk with you today and everyday for the rest of your lives. Kris, while your up in heaven, tell Julian to show you the ropes and hopefully we will feel the spirit from both of you, as you now have become a guardian angel to us all.

Sweet baby boy, I remember the day you were born I held you so close. You were not just the baby you were my baby. How I loved dressing you up to look like Holly Hobby you always thought it so much fun. I remember having to fight with you to get my doll back, oh what fun times we had. Kris I can't believe this is true, I just talked to you on your birthday teasing you once again Mr. Peabody and hearing your sweet giggle. Thank you so much for being my baby brother, for loving me, for loving my kids and for always having my back. I know in my heart of hearts the COLTS need your help to win this Super Bowl so with that my brother I will raise a glass to you, feel that big bear hug you always gave me and envision you picking your pants out of that cute bubble butt you were so blessed with. I love you, please watch over ALL of US, and please Kris comfort Allison, MOM and the boys... I promise to always be here for the boys and Al and I promise to take care of mom, but as you know I'm going to need major help with that one. Until I see you again, may your light guide me through the rest of my life and may your LOVE be a symbol of the BOND that we have. Good Nite baby boy sleep tight... KRK

“ I will always remember the laughs and good times we had. I enjoyed the time when we would battle on the dance floor in our younger years and ill never forget when I was working by your house and the rain storm came down and I came sliding down the neighbors driveway from all the rain and you pulled up and seen me and you could not stop laughing while you where getting all the tree limbs off me and helping me up. Gonna miss you buddy thank you for the phone call while I was in the hospital. GOD SPEED my friend till we meet again.
