“ Larry Jr. and I were about 5 years apart and we use to play in the backyard digging up yard worms especially after it rained. I would hang them around my waist and go in the the house like a hula dancer and scare his Mom and family, who always got a good laugh out of us. Larry was already liking for worms.

Larry was the most kind hearted , giving soul. He loved his family and family members and was very protective. We loved him very much and know he is resting in the arms of our Lord.

Love ,
Aunt Janiene
