“ I met Larry through Evelyn. He was a gentle, kind, soft-spoken gentleman. He always greeted you with a hug and a peck on the cheek. He made you feel like he had known you forever and he enjoyed being around you. He was funny too. I loved seeing him interact with Peyton and Hunter; he loved them like they were his own. On holidays, he would eat his dinner, his sweets (which he wasn't supposed to have) and fall asleep on the couch. Such wonderful times with him. He was a wonderful friend and we will miss him dearly. God bless you Larry, and rest easy my friend.

“ Over the years Larry and I have built a beautiful friendship. I have never met someone so kind, so thoughtful, so appreciative of everything. He would text or call me and apologize for it. I always told him he never needed to apologize. He had no idea what his value and worth was to all who knew and loved him. I will miss him dearly. God bless his three beautiful children and his entire family. Rest in peace my dear friend and say hello to Jan for me!
