“ Oh boy, where do I start? Lela, Marge Boyll, and Marlene Wright. What a great group of friends. We had so many laughter filled times. We were poor as could be, but rich in our friendships. I surely miss these ladies and hope they are having a good laugh somewhere together again.

“ This is what my sister wants all of us to know
When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right there in your heart.
Love to you my sister

“ The kids and I are so sad and will miss you terribly. Lela was a great mother in law. She loved her grandkids and great granddaughter Aubrey. 9 times out of 10 when I'd go visit she would be watching the Golden Girls. She could recite each episode verbatim. We love you gram.
