“ I still have a lot of the candles you made for us, burning one tonight and reflecting on all the memories. I cannot thank you enough for raising the man I love so much and therefore giving me my beautiful baby girl. She and any future children will know how much grandma Linda loves them and is watching over them, and I will miss you so much.

“ I love and Miss you, Momma Toth. I remember many great memories of you. Meeting you in person at a halloween party and then a few times after. Me and Donnie have become such great brothers and I'm glad to have met him and your family. You welcomed me with such open arms and you were a great person and Mom to Donnie, Jason and Brandon. I wish I could have visited you sooner. Rest in peace and watch over us all.
