

Lorraine Rose Marbach

February 17, 1921 - July 10, 2010

Lorraine Rose Marbach, age 89. Born in Chicago on February 17, 1921, a long time resident of Calumet City, IL, recently of Hobart, IN, passed away on July 10, 2010. She was the wife of the late Philip J. Marbach, who passed away on February 12, 1979. Lorraine is survived by 5 children, Philip (Donna) Marbach of Pennsburg PA, Dennis (Dottie) Marbach of Bluffton, IN, Pamela (Ken) Kubacki of Raleigh, N.C., Mary Elizabeth (Michael) Matela of Westville, IN and Robert (Katy) Marbach of Woodstock, GA; 13 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren. Lorraine was a devote Jehovah's Witness and was a dedicated student and teacher of the Bible. She was a long time member of the Hammond Central congregation and a recent member of the Hobart congregation. Known as the "candy lady" to the children of her congregation, a piece of candy would always find its way into the hand of any child (regardless of age) with a smile and a greeting. She was loved by many and will be remembered for her sense of humor, her laugh and those famous eye rolls. We will miss her stories of her early days as a Norwegian Indian Princess.

Family and friends will gather at Burns Funeral Home, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN on Friday, July 16, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. Interment at City of Crown Point Historic Maplewood Cemetery. No flowers please. Memorial contributions may be made to VNA Hospice Center, 2401 Valley Drive, Valparaiso, IN 46383. www.burnsfuneral.com
