“ My condolences to the family. I loved Uncle Dan so much. No one will ever replace him. I will never forget the first time he met my husband, well within minutes uncle Dan was telling him stories. He always told the embarrassing ones too. To told my husband how I use to run around with overalls and no shirt when I was little and how I wanted to be like the boys and pee outside like them that's what overalls were for. Still don't remember doing that but uncle Dan laugh the whole way through the story and my husband was in tears. Uncle Dan made every single one of us cousins feel just as special as the others, and there is a lot of us. I will forever remember "Camp Streeter". I love you uncle Dan and will miss you so much. Please watch over us, lord knows we need it. Love, Tiffany and David Podhorsky Walters. P.s. Hugs and kisses to aunt Glo. Debbie and Danny “ Unbelievably heartbroken! I remember the first time I met Big Lou, it was D.J's graduation, and it was the first time going to the Streeter home, it looked like a camp ground, campers and tents, music, lights. Every Party after that was just as big and elaborate.

Lou was a great friend to Rich, Rich always looked forward to the trips to the tractor pulls every year. I am so heart broken for him because he looked forward to their morning coffee and talks and then maybe a beer at the end of a long day making that yard look good. LOL

My heart goes out to the Streeter Family for your loss, you are all in out thoughts and prayers.
