“ Louise was a valued member of our community. She served so many, always with a smile and lots of energy. i knew her from our church, the House & Garden Club and our husbands (both deceased) were Knights of Columbus. She loved her cats, a cigarette, bunco. and I never heard her complain. Shocked to know she is gone but grateful thst she is at peace. My sincere sympathy to her family. Ann Naulry

“ Louise was more than just a mother in law. She was a good friend and person who always thought of others before herself. I will always cherish our times playing bingo, long nights playing cards and shopping together. I know you are now playing with your cats and getting ready to play bingo with the Angels. Love, Roxanne
