“ My heartfelt condolences to Feme and all the Liapes family. Lucas was an extraordinary man. I worked with Lucas for many years at the Men's Wear house, in fact, it was Lucas who got me the job with the help of his daughter-in-law Karen. I learned many things from him. Lucas was a great master tailor, his work was impeccable. I especially loved all his stories about his life in Greece and all the history lessons. Lucas always stopped in to the store to say hello and find out how we we're doing. I'm so grateful I got to see him one last time a few weeks ago. Lucas may you rest in eternal peace and may your family always be in God's loving hands. Janet Mcgowan

“ Feme, I am so sorry Lucas has passed. I just loved having him tell me stories about Patmos and his life there. I am grateful he is in heaven where he can rest where there is no pain, sorrow, or suffering. My prayers are with you and we regret we cannot join you in this pandemic to provide you support.

Nick, as regulars at your Cafe, we also want to express our condolences to you.
