

Lucille Martin

July 19, 1921 - August 4, 2013

Lucille (nee: Norton) Martin, age 92 of Crown Point passed away August 4, 2013 at St. Anthony Home in Crown Point, IN. She is survived by two sons, Jeffery A. (Jane) Martin, Gregory L. Martin, of Schererville and one grandchild, Bryan M. Martin of Crown Point; step-granddaughter, Renee Walstra, step-great-grandchildren, Nathan, Sara, and Jessica, step-great-great-grandchild, Elliott. She was preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Charles Martin and late daughters-in-law Marie and Jan Martin.

Lucille's creativity led her to the Vogue School of Design in Chicago as a young woman and spent many years creating clothing for her family, and later as a painter working in all mediums. She was extremely sociable and an avid bridge player. Lucille and her husband spent 25 years in retirement in Sarasota, Florida living in a golfing community playing the game they loved. Lucille only gave up golf in the last few years and played in leagues at Summer Tree and The Sherwood Club. Lucille and her husband, Charles, had made arrangements for their ashes to be interred into an "Eternal Reefs" and be deposited in the waters off the coast of Sarasota, Florida, in the Gulf of Mexico. A Memorial Service at the First Presbyterian Church in Crown Point will be held on Friday August 16, 2013. Memorial donations are preferred to the Crown Point Community Foundation with designations for: First Presbyterian Church of Crown Point, the Crown Point Community Library or South Shore Art. Burns Funeral Home in Crown Point in charge of arrangements. www.burnsfuneral.com
