“ Since there are so many miles between us I have decided to write a message to you. My memories of you are ones that I will hold onto forever. You were such a great Mom and always treated me just like I was your own daughter. Growing up with your daughter Phyllis was such an important time in my life. The two of us were always together and you were always the first to make sure I was included in any and all family activities that were planned. You never said no to me spending the night or just coming over to play and for that I am forever thankful. You are such a wonderful lady and I am so fortunate to be someone who had the pleasure of growing up with you. May God Bless and hold you safe in his arms and if you see my Dad, give him a big hug for me. XOXO###imported-begin###Carrie Floody###imported-end##
