

Margaret E Cioni

September 25, 1932 - April 10, 2023

Elaine Cioni, age 90, passed away on April 10, 2023. She was born on September 25, 1932 in Gary, Indiana to Samuel and Margaret Gudino. She graduated from Lew Wallace class of 1950. Elaine was a caring, loving, and compassionate wife, mother, sister, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother (GG), and friend. She always had the unique ability to maintain a positive attitude even during the challenging situations life hands us, saw the good in everyone, and the simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to her. She was passionate about spending time in her garden, vacationing, baking, and she enjoyed spending time with her family.

Elaine had a gift for helping others. She proudly worked as a nurse for many years at Broadway Methodist Hospital, and she previously owned and operated a hobby shop in Merrillville, IN where she taught painting, ceramics, and various other crafting classes.

She is survived by her brother, Sam Gudino; children, Karen Blimm and Rick (Gina) Cioni; grandchildren Jimmy, Krystin (Chachi), Erik, Emily, Derick, Devon, Connor, two great-grandchildren Brady and Noah; and longtime friend, Chet. Elaine's laugh was contagious, and her smile would light up every room she entered. Her loved ones will continue to honor her legacy by living their lives to the fullest.

Per Elaine's wishes, private burial will take place at Calumet Park Cemetery.
Burns Funeral Home, Crown Point entrusted with arrangements.

“ Sam

Words cannot express the sorrow felt by the tragic loss of such a nice lady, I am so glad I got to meet her. My thoughts and prayers are with you, your family and friends during this unimaginably difficult time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Elaine for many years at Methodist. I always admired her constant positivity no matter what the situation was either personal for work related. She had a great sense of humor and was truly a pleasure and a blessing to know. She loved her family very much and was so very proud of all of you. She will be missed greatly. What a very lovely angel that heaven has received!
