“ Mom, you are in every minute of everyday for us. Your love, your laughter, your support, your words. We miss you already so much. You have made our lives worth living and we will do all we can to continue to live in a way to make you proud. I really thought you would be with us forever, but a spirit like yours never dies. Thank you for the privilege of being a part of your family and life. Now it's time to fly with the angels and live with the Lord. We're betting aside from Dad the first person to greet you was your brother David, who has been waiting for you for almost 70 years! Rest in Peace, and one day we know we will be surrounded by your beauty and wrapped in your loving arms again. Until then, watch over your family and keep us safe. Thank you dear Lord for giving us the blessing that we called Mom for so very many precious years. Love forever and beyond, Kurt and Leann
