

Margaret Sweeney Hill

May 27, 1924 - June 9, 2008

Margaret Sweeney Hill was born in Somerset, KY on May 27, 1924, the ninth of eleven children born to Lula & Ernest Sweeney. A longtime resident of Hobart, she died on June 9, 2008 in Valparaiso, IN. Surviving are her two daughters: Joyce (Campbell) Curran of Molalla, OR and Shirley (Campbell) Vaughan of Chesterton, IN; seven grandchildren: Brian Curran, Patti (Curran) Gyalog, Laura (Vaughan) El-Naggar, Kevin Curran, Teresa (Vaughan) DiMaria, Richard Vaughan, and Aaron Vaughan; fourteen great-grandchildren (in order of age): Justin, Amanda, Kylie, Ryan, Karlee, Sanaya, Emily, Nadia, Kasi, Jordan, Rylie, Reise, Aliyah and Nate. Her surviving siblings are John Sweeney of Niles, MI, Ruth Ellefson of Paris, TN, and Sylvia Schlitzer of Tucson, AZ. She had many cherished in-laws, nephews, and nieces including Darlene Strom of Portage. Regretfully, too, she leaves behind her loving church family. She was employed at U.S. Steel Sheet & Tin Mill in Gary, IN for 38 years. She later worked part-time for the Sheet & Tin Federal Credit Union. She was formerly married to J. M. Campbell and Edward Hill. For 40 years she devoted her life to worship and prayer through her fellowship at First Church in Hobart, IN. She worked miracles with her pies, cakes, cookies and nut rolls. She was loved and highly respected by her family, friends and acquaintances. Visitation will be Friday, June 13, 2008, from 2-8 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home, 701 E. 7th St., Hobart, IN. Funeral service will be Saturday at 10:00 a.m. at First Church, 939 S. Wisconsin St., Hobart, IN. Pastor John R. Barley officiating. Burial to follow at Angelcrest Cemetery, Valparaiso, IN.
