“ My name is Shelley Mills and I was Marge's caregiver. I just want to thank you for giving me the wonderful gift of caring for your mother she was a precious lady!! I fell in love with her loving spirit immediately! ! We became the best of friends and that I will forever hold dear in my heart!! She was just so very special and I am forever grateful that I got to be with her as she left this world to be with our heavenly father!! I will pray for your family through this sad time. It gives me peace to know she is in a better place now!! I got her the necklace she was wearing every day and I always told her it meant she held the key to my heart (: God Bless you all!!! I will love her always???

“ *To Marge's family:
Marge was a fun-loving friend. We worked together on many class reunions, and had early breakfast together with other classmates. Memories of our high school days at Dyer Central would be the conversation at our meetings. We all looked forward to getting together each time. Marge will be missed! You have my prayers to help heal your grief and my heartfelt sympathy.
Sincerely,
Peggy Jones*
