

Maria Schubert

August 21, 1926 - May 24, 2020

Maria “Obie” (nee Lais) Schubert, of Hobart, passed away May 24, 2020. She was born on August 21, 1926 in Schlectbach Germany. Maria was a seamstress by trade and took pride in her sewing skills. At her place of employment, she also became a supervisor. Maria and her husband, Karl, immigrated to the United States in 1955 and they became U.S. citizens. They then moved to Northwest Indiana where she and her husband started a family and eventually built three homes. Maria was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church and the Sarah Circle. She took great pride in her home and being a homemaker. Maria enjoyed being a kind and loving mother and grandmother. We will greatly miss our “Obie”.

Maria was preceded in death by her husband-Karl Schubert; siblings-Martha, Emmy, Elsie, Helen, and Alfred. She is survived by her daughters-Virginia Perkins, Kathleen Klakoski; granddaughters-Leslie Simpson and Ashley Rinconeno; sister-Annie Shepard.

Services for Maria will be private. Burns Funeral Home (Hobart) entrusted with arrangements. www.burnsfuneral.com.

“ I’m great full for all the memories I have of my Obie. She taught me how to sew at a young age and how to run wild on the back deck. There will only be one Obie and she will be missed in so many ways.
