

Marilyn Martz

July 3, 1955 - January 16, 2024

Marilyn Martz, age 68, of Lowell, IN, passed away on January 16, 2024, at St. Anthony Hospital in Crown Point, IN. She was born on July 3, 1955, in Gary, Indiana, to John and Hilda Connor. Marilyn was preceded in death by her father, John Connor. She is survived by her loving husband, Gregory Martz, Lowell, IN; her son, Allen Martz, Lowell, IN; her daughter, Amanda (Kenneth) Seaton, Demotte, IN; her mother, Hilda Connor, Munster, IN; two sisters: Carole and Joyce; brother, Frederick Connor. Marilyn also leaves behind many nieces and nephews who will greatly miss her.

Marilyn was a vibrant and creative individual. She had a passion for spending time with her family and enjoyed hosting game nights. Marilyn and her husband even started a crafting business together. She had a knack for crafting and loved transforming old wood into beautiful birdhouses. Marilyn also had a talent for interior design and took pride in creating stunning living spaces. Her sense of humor was infectious, and she always had a smile on her face.

Marilyn attended Munster High School and later pursued her passion for beauty at the Creative Beauty Academy. She was always eager to learn and improve her skills. Later in life, Marilyn worked for photographers and loved editing and designing creative photos.

A celebration of Marilyn's life will take place on Saturday, February 10, 2024, at Signature Banquets located at 1908 E. Commercial Drive, Lowell, IN, starting at 2:00 p.m. Please join us in honoring Marilyn's memory and sharing stories of her remarkable life.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to the American Diabetes Foundation. Contributions made in Marilyn's name will help support vital research and provide assistance to those affected by diabetes.

Marilyn Martz will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her memory will forever be cherished in our hearts. www.burnsfuneral.com
