“ God what is give to go back in time when things were simple and we had no care in the world. No responsibilities! If we could relive our childhood id do it in a heartbeat. I miss the whole family! Living down the street from you and your sisters was life. It was never a dull moment with you lol. You beat me up when I come over thinking you was flirting haha, I mean I'm not mad cause we all know I had the biggest crush on you as well haha. We always stayed and remind friends through all the years. You sister could never come to my house I had to always come there haha. To my brother being in love with Bree! From domo bringing laundry to my house to get it all caught up and done as she's doing laundry at your parents house! From you coming to the apartment behind Kmart and meeting Brayden lol, and us going to watch my brother play ball at the courts. I'd go back and relive it all over again in a heart beat. I miss you marky and our conversation we would have. You could definitely turn someone's bad day into proolly the best day. You and my brother have the kinda heart and humor people need in their lives. Y'all remind me of each other. Miss you bunches and I'll see you soon! Love you boo! ☹️
