“ Mark loved to come into my office and sit across the desk from me and watch me work. If I was busy and did not seem to be paying enough attention to him he would let me know by making belching noises or " tooting" and then he would crack up laughing. He put a smile on my face each and every day he came into the center. He was a kind and happy man. He will be greatly missed! Rest in peace my friend.

*Becky, thank you so much for being such a good friend to my brother. I know you're part of the reason he loved going to the workshop.
With great appreciation,
