“ My uncle Mark & my Aunt Linda are the absolute BEST Aunt & Uncle ever. When my Dad died uncle Mark & I REALLY started to become a lot closer. I was out getting myself in trouble & he would talk to me & try to straighten me out. I will cherish the walks & talks we had walking around the lake in Hobart. Going to watch the fireworks in Hobart just him & I....we talked a lot. I was really grateful for some of the things he made me open my eyes up and realize. Im going to miss him sending me boxes of cajun gourmet breading from Stracks to me out here in Wyoming so i can bread my fish fillets & fry them up in that stuff. Sooo so good. I even remember watching Mike Tyson fights on HBO at their house live in the 80s. I don't think i will ever delete the voicemails i have saved from him on my phone. :*((I love you Uncle, I always have & always will. Im glad I got to tell you that from my heart face to face so you really KNEW how i felt. I'm sorry I couldn't make it there for your lil funeral thing. Me not being able to go bugs me more than people know.
