I miss you Sis....but I have a great memory you left with me. Two days before you passed you left me a message on my phone, that you would be going home on Sunday..Well, you did go to heaven on Sunday, and I listen to that message every Sunday morning or when I need to hear you, to remember you by. I love and miss you so much!

“ There are many memories of my sister as we were growing up. We were pals and she was a friend for all times. She was fun-loving, compassionate, caring and as crazy as could be. She could make me laugh one minute and cry the next. She was never predictable, even to the very end of her life. Good bye, Sis. You are very deep in my heart.

“ As one of the first people we met at the Pines, Marsha always made us feel as if we were part of her family. Her sheer joy of life always put a smile in my heart, especially the night we celebrated my retirement.
