

Martina Phillips

March 7, 1939 - September 2, 2013

Martina "Teena" Palkovich Phillips, age 74, of Hobart IN, passed away in her sleep September 2, 2013, with her husband, Raymond, at her side. Martina was born on March 7, 1939 to John and Martina Palkovich of East Chicago, IN.

Preceded in death by her parents, Martina is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 54 years, Raymond; her five children, Karen (Gary), Tim (Diane), John (Lisa), Jim (Kate) and Melissa (Martin); eleven grandchildren, Katie, Zachary, Kristin, Lauren, Michelle, Nicholas, Joseph, Caitlyn, Emily, Samuel and Thomas; her brothers, John (Janice) and Dennis (Diane); numerous nieces and nephews.

Martina was a wonderful daughter, sister, wife, mother and grandmother whose love of laughter and fun was contagious to those around her; she always loved a good party. She took great joy from being a stay at home mother to her five children and later worked as a part time retail clerk and a reading tutor at Our Lady of Grace School in Highland, IN. In recent years, Martina's favorite activities included heated games of Texas Hold 'Em with friends and family, especially her grandchildren, and vacations at Bruce Lake, IN. The family welcomes visitors at Burns Funeral Home, Friday September 6, 2013, from 2-4 pm and 5-8 pm (701 E 7th St. Hobart, IN). A funeral mass in honor of Martina will be held on Saturday, September 7, 2013, at Saint Bridget's Catholic Church at 10 am (107 Main St., Hobart, IN). In lieu of flowers, donations to the Visiting Nurses Association of Porter County, IN, would be greatly appreciated by the family (checks payable to the VNA Foundation, 2401 Valley Drive, Valparaiso, IN 46383, or for more information www.VNAportercounty.org). The VNA provided long term medical and emotional support for Martina as her health progressively declined. The family would also like to thank the residents and staff of Brentwood Assisted Living of Hobart, IN.
