“ So very sorry to hear of Uncle Marvin's passing. He taught me how to ride a bike as a child, and gave me gardening tips as an adult. His character reflected Christ in that Uncle Marvin was always so kind to everyone; even when they weren't kind to him. Remembering his strength of character as he pushed forward after the deaths of Tina, Burt, and Aunt Carolyn helped me cope with my own similar experiences. If I am reading his obituary correctly, he was one of 8 kids. Wow. I will miss him, and I will keep Kira and Lora in my prayers.
