“ I will always remember my neighbor growing up as being a loving wonderful wife and mother. She was always there for anyone who needed her💛 I remember her working two jobs at a time when her boys were very young. When Laura was born one day after my first daughter in 1971 she was one of my daughter's best friend. Mary had all the neighborhood kids in her yard to play for many years and, was so kind to my three children when I moved back to Glen Park in 1974. I can't think of anyone kinder than Mary who also taught me how to drive a car when I was 15 when I was growing up across the street from Mary and Bruno at 3460 Connecticut Street. May she rest in Eternal peace. Love you Mary💔💔💔Cheryl Markovich
