

Mary Virginia Maxey

November 6, 1925 - June 14, 2014

Mary Virginia Maxey, age 88, of Miller, formerly of Pocahontas, Virginia, passed away on Saturday, June 14, 2014. Mary was a retired butcher from Buy Low Supermarkets. She was a member of Inland Manor Baptist Church in Hobart and the Bonner Senior Citizens Center in Portage. She loved rummage sales, flea markets and to hunt for a bargain. She always supported the underdog and never met a stranger.

Mary was preceded in death by her husband of 51 years-Wilburn R. Maxey and her son-John R. Maxey; her parents-Margaret and Fred Turney and her brothers-Bud and Paul Turney and special friend-Jim Hoggard. Mary is survived by her daughter-Rose (Joe) Aquino of Miller; sons -William (Cindy) Maxey of Demotte and Fred Maxey (Cindy May) of Valparaiso; grandchildren-Angela Aquino, Michael (Julie) Maxey, Heather (David) DeWitt, Kayla and Tara Maxey; six great-grandchildren-Jacob, Emerson, Delaney and Aidan Maxey, Abigail and Sebastian DeWitt; several nieces, nephews and loving friends.

A Celebration of Mary's life will be held on Saturday, July 5, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. at Inland Manor Baptist Church, 630 North County Line Road, Hobart, IN., Dr. Don Worch officiating. Burns Funeral Home, 701 East 7th Street, Hobart, has been entrusted with funeral arrangements. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Inland Manor Baptist Church.www.burnsfuneral.com