“ Aunt Mary was so special to talk to when she and your dad would come to Jeddo. She always had time for us, even though she had such a big family to look after. I adored both your parents. I will always treasure those wonderful times together. God's peace to all her family.

“ As you go through this time of grieving our thoughts and prayers are with you. May all the beautiful memories made throughout her lifetime bring you peace, laughter, and comfort. Our hope is that each memory revisited will keep her always in your heart. Kelsey and I always enjoyed the times we spent with her, she was always filled with laughter and smiles. Love Kelsey and Elva Santiago

My condolences to the family especially to John and Joy and family. I am a transplant from Freeland, PA and am familiar with family members from there. I believe that Mary in her younger days in Freeland was a good friend of my aunts and their neighbors. May you find solace in good memories.
