“ My heartfelt sympathy to Mary's family and friends. Mary and I shared a friendship of 35 years. I have many fond memories from our children's school years and beyond. She and Keith got Rick and I back into auctions and estate sales which has brought us much enjoyment. She was a wonderful friend and we had so much fun no matter what we did -even if it was a marathon phone conversation. She must be dancing with the angels-save some room for me.

“ We were neighbors from around the block and Mary and I used to climb her cherry tree in her backyard and eat half the cherries up before her mom had a chance to make a pie or anything. Mary was an example of a sweet, caring, true friend. Between the McCarthys and the Schoenfelts, I think we had the most kids per family— Good, mischievous kids. I have never forgotten you Mary and knew that you had to have had a very good life because you were such a good person. May you fly high with the Angels that we were taught about. 🌹🌹🙏🙏🌹🌹😊😊

“ Deepest condolences to all Mary's family, friends and all who knew her. I also went to Holy Angels and Horace Mann and was always impressed with her zest for life. Spent a lot of time on the block where she grew up in Gary and Mary was a big part of there rarely being a dull moment.
