“ Autumn leaves float in the air
Whispers of love everywhere
Children laugh as they hear them crunch
Youthful delight
Birdie I imagine
You dancing in the leaves
Eyes glowing warmth for all

“ I have greatly enjoyed getting to know my second cousin Mary, mostly through Facebook, but also through memories shared by my mom, Kay. A favorite memory was visiting with she and her sister Donna in my mom’s kitchen a few years back at Christmas time. They sang songs and played instruments—joy was in the air! I appreciated her poetry, humor, and political views. Although fb is virtual, she was a part of my life and heart and will be greatly missed. Love & Sympathy to her family 🙏❤️

“ I had the privilege of playing in 2 different bands with Mary in Ohio. She was the consummate pro. Never complained, always did her job. A fine singer. But what is more important is that she was an old, kind soul. We never differed in our attitudes in music or life except when she questioned my musical taste for a song called “ Me and You and a Dog Named Blue” which she detested. I have kept in close contact with her via Facebook for decades. I will miss her wit, her poetry and her love very much. Vaya con Dios my lady. I will miss you! ❤️

As I read of Mary's passing in the same week I turn 73, I'm anxious about life. Being friends with Mary and Tim in a previous time in life it reminds one of how fragile life can be. I'm thankful for knowing Mary and sorry to Phil and her family for their loss. RIP Roy P Feb 6.
