

Matthew "Matt" Jon Roque

December 15, 2000 - April 10, 2026

Matthew "Matt" Roque, age 25, of Crown Point, Indiana, passed away on April 10, 2026, surrounded by his loved ones. While this loss is heavy, we find peace in knowing he is now with God, free from pain and at rest.

Matt is survived by his parents, Hector Roque III and Dianna Roque; his siblings, Lisa Torres (Victor III), David Roque, and Lauren Roque; his nieces, Alyssa, Skyla, Desean, and Deioni; his nephews, Victor IV and James; his grandmother, Antonia (Toni) Melendez; his godfather, Jon Melendez; and Ena Rambo, his "bonus mom"; childhood friends, Elias Gerodemos and Blake Klingberg. He is also survived by many uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, (Papa) John Melendez and Hector Roque Jr.; and his grandmother, Ramona "Monin" Roque.

Matt was "a Gift from God" who meant everything to his family and friends. Even in the hardest moments, he kept his faith and had a genuine soul that everyone around him could feel, and that's something we will always carry with us. Truly, to know Matt was to love Matt.

He leaves behind not just memories, but a lasting impact on everyone who knew and loved him. His presence, his spirit, and who he was as a person will never be forgotten.

We hold onto our faith and trust in God's promise that Matt is now at peace, free from suffering, and resting in His presence, where there is no pain and no sorrow.

We want to thank the doctors, nurses, and staff at the University of Chicago in Crown Point and Hyde Park for the care, compassion, and love they showed Matt and our family during a time we will never forget.

A memorial visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 22, 2026, from 2:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home & Crematory, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN. The memorial service will begin at 6:00 p.m. Pastor Christian Washington officiating. Please visit Matt's online obituary and guestbook at www.burnsfuneral.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Dearest Matt,

You showed me what it truly means to be a warrior. I am so thankful for the grace and positivity you carried with you, even when life gave you every reason not to. In the moments we crossed paths in those hospital halls, fighting our own battles side by side, you became more than just someone I knew—you became a light.

You had a way of lifting others, even when you were the one carrying so much. Your strength wasn't just in how you fought, but in how you lived—full of kindness, courage, and an unwavering spirit that refused to be dimmed. You reminded me that even in the hardest days, there is still room for hope, laughter, and connection.

I will always carry the lessons you gave me: to face life with bravery, to choose positivity when it feels impossible, and to never take a single moment for granted. Your impact didn't end with your fight—it lives on in everyone who had the privilege of knowing you.

You were, and always will be, an incredible soul. I am so grateful our paths crossed. I love you, Always.

*Forever inspired by you,
Nichole*

“ We try to make sense of things like this, but it's impossible to make sense of something that just doesn't make sense to us. He was a humble, kind, respectful young man. I remember how impressed I was the first time I met him. He was in the kitchen as I walked into the dining area. I was expecting him to look up, say hello in a disinterested manner the way many young people do, and continue about his business. It wasn't like that. He approached me, shook my hand, and genuinely acknowledged my presence. I was surprised at how mature his behavior was. I immediately took a liking to him. You couldn't help but like him. He had that kind of a soul. Despite his young age, he will be missed.

“ Matt will forever be in my heart. I didn't know him very long, but from the very first time we met I knew he was a friend for life. I will always cherish the conversations and random funny memes he sent daily. Towards the end the daily memes became every few days, weekly even. I could tell something was wrong but he never let me know it. He always kept a positive attitude, always keeping faith. The only comfort in all of this is knowing he was ready and he put it in God's hands, he is no longer in pain. I know for a fact he is in heaven and we have gained another guardian angel. Thank you Matt for showing me that even when facing death, faith in God and love of friends and family defeats all fear and pain. Love you bro.
